

THE MAINE COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME & MUSEUM

PURPOSE

The purpose of establishing the Maine Country Music Hall of Fame & Museum is as follows:

To create and maintain a physical warehouse and showplace for Country & Bluegrass Music performers' historic memorabilia, accumulated throughout their public years of entertaining in order to provide a museum for the general public to view and learn about the careers of these leaders in the Country Music and Bluegrass industry.

To recognize their individual and collective accomplishments: thus preserving for the future the important cultural contributions of Maine Country & Bluegrass Musics' greatest entertainers of the past, present, and future.

The Maine Country Music Hall of Fame & Museum consists of well over one hundred members since the project's beginning in 1978. Each year, one or more deserving country Music & bluegrass personalities are elected and inducted into the Maine Country Music Hall of Fame.

MAINE COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME AND MUSEUM

OBJECTIVES

To preserve the memories of the Maine Country Music Hall of Fame & Museum members who have preceded us in this field of endeavor.

To perpetuate for posterity the incidents that have brought the Country & Bluegrass Music profession within the State of Maine to the stature that recognizes the contribution of these elected honored personalities.

To help and guide others in learning about the Hall of Fame & Museum members for their accomplishments in their individual lifetimes of country music entertaining.

To promote Country & Bluegrass Music, in all its various categories and names, in a manner that shall keep it clean, wholesome, enjoyable and a pleasurable form of entertainment for all people.

To always preserve, promote, perform and continue Country and Bluegrass Music as an enduring cultural form of art for the future within the State of Maine.
